Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Lead, manage and direct, plan, develop, implement, and maintain a quality organizational training program that supports mission requirements and meets the ongoing professional development needs of employees.
- NCTC/DI is seeking an energetic and experienced officer to serve as the Senior Intelligence Educator handling tradecraft and training in the DI's Front Office. The successful candidate will manage the DI's analytic training program to provide DI officers the knowledge and skills essential to perform the DI's mission.
- This Senior Intelligence Educator position requires the skills of a motivated self-starter with excellent interpersonal skills who can work collaboratively with the DI's Tradecraft Referent, the NCTC/FO, managers, and with key training partners such as the NCTC/FO intelligence educator and the Kent School. The selectee must be willing to innovate, to identify gaps in training, and provide practical and creative solutions. The Senior Intelligence Educator will work with key partners to develop new curriculum or modify existing programs or modules to reflect current developments in tradecraft relevant to the DI mission.
- As the program manager for the DI's Detailee Analytic Program, the successful candidate will run the Detailee Analytic Program at least two times a year and will coordinate the logistics and efforts of the instructional teams to ensure the delivery of the best tradecraft instruction to the DI's detailees. The selectee will be expected to facilitate some portions of the course.
